OVERVIEW

COMMUNITIES IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION PROGRAMS

History: The Communities Improvement Association (CIA), a non-profit organization, was incorporated December 19, 1966 in the Judge of Probate Office, Elmore County. The CIA consists of eleven board members and five officers. The Association was established to service Coosada, Millbrook, Elmore and Deatsville communities. Originally, CIA meetings were hosted by area churches then later moved to Sandtown School campus.

Mission Statement: To promote education, prevention, and intervention services and programs affecting the health and welfare of the youth and elderly of Elmore County.

Vision Statement: To create a healthy community by nurturing the mind, body, and spirit. To empower others by pooling our resources and expanding our strength. Striving to improve the communities by fostering unity and support.

Programs:

Kids Journey: Youth enrichment program to build self-esteem, improve academics for the upcoming school year, and create leaders of tomorrow.

Seniors: Venue for seniors to gather and fellowship while enjoying lunch. This is also a time to promote healthy lifestyles.

Community Functions: Venue for social events which generate revenue for the facility and offset costs for current programs.

Planned Programs:

After-School Activities: Venue for children to accomplish school work with assistance.

Community Outreach: Provide seminars on resume preparation, computer instruction, healthy lifestyles, drug reduction, sewing classes, Boys and Girl Scouts.
